ASEAN-EU CONSULTATION WORKSHOP
ON HIGHER EDUCATION:
THE FUTURE OF THE ASEAN HIGHER EDUCATION SPACE
AND THE ROLE OF SHARE

Jakarta, 21-22 May 2018

PROGRAMME BOOK

1 BACKGROUND AND OBJECTIVES

The EU Support to Higher Education in the ASEAN Region (SHARE) Programme will end its four-year pilot phase in January 2019. Based on the endorsement of the 12th ASEAN Senior Officials Meeting on Education (SOM-ED) held in Bangkok on 30 November and 1 December 2017, EU and ASEAN Secretariat discussed the intent to extend the pilot phase of SHARE until 2021, during which time a new phase of SHARE shall be prepared, which could start from 2021 onwards. The opportunities presented by this possible extension of SHARE by around 2.5 years necessitate an inclusive consultation with all stakeholders.

Accordingly, the objectives of the consultation workshop are:

1. Review achievements of SHARE including challenges, lessons learned and replicable practices;
2. Identify emerging trends and priorities (global, regional and national) in higher education that could influence an extended and expanded implementation of SHARE;
3. Plot relevant activities for SHARE extension;
4. Recommend measures to ensure strong ASEAN ownership of SHARE processes and results as a key strategy to programme sustainability and institutionalisation; and
5. Sketch long-term perspectives for the development of ASEAN Higher Education Space and ASEAN-EU cooperation under SHARE and beyond.
